(The Media Education Journal)

ISSN 0268-1951

The mej is published by AMES -
The Association for Media Education in Scotland

Scottish Charity number: SC029408

Diverse but accessible; Scottish but not parochial; linking politics, theory, culture and media. With contributions from teachers, students, media professionals, pressure groups, etc. A world without the mej's theory, classroom practice, reviews, and more, is not worth living. To subscribe:

Complete and send off the tear-off sheet along with your cheque to the AMES Treasurer, c/o Des Murphy, 24 Burnett Place, Aberdeen, AB24 4QD. Direct debit and bank giro credit payments can also be arranged.

Complete and send off the tear-off sheet, having marked the box requesting an invoice (institutions only), to AMES at the same address

or

Advise your subscription agency to enter your subscription for a year

Subscriptions are for two issues a year, normally published in autumn and spring. Subscriptions are normally registered for the AMES year, which is from April to March, but where necessary subscriptions can be registered from mid-year to mid-year.

◇ Institutions and individuals within the UK may wish to subscribe instead as members of AMES. In addition to the mej, members receive a newsletter when published, and reduced fees for other publications and for events such as day schools.
